

Walking The Commons with The Commons

I wake up to the silence Baa – Beh – Maa – Meh Dynamically changing, ever-changing shapes cast my shadow on green heights

I see you, in a circle, in scorching heat hand in hand, noting your right and your left befriending them by your side to chaperon as you go on

Walking away off-the-grid
To walk a way
To hike the way
Terragnolo-Serrada

Green pastures trekking ahead Eyes closed, pretend play Foraging and tasting the landscape forging new alliances

The cold running river, fresh tap water
The forest, firewood and sawdust
The herbs from the valley The Commons
The panorama, sun and shade

Being-together, being-with our call to becoming to learn and exchange grounded care Being-in-common
